

Cranford Park Primary School CHARGING AND REMISSIONS POLICY

UN Convention on the Rights of the Child
Article 26	You have the right to help from the government if you are poor or in need.
Article 28	You have the right to a good quality education. You should be encouraged to go to school to the highest level you can.
Article 29	Your education should help you use and develop your talents and abilities. It should also help you learn to live peacefully, protect the environment and respect other people.

The Governing Body recognises the valuable contributions that the wide range of additional activities provided, including clubs, educational visits and residential experiences, make towards pupils personal and social education. This policy aims to clarify what is liable for charging and what is left as voluntary contribution and states where remission of charges may be available.

Education during school hours

A charge may be made for extra-curricular instrumental tuition and instrument hire.

Education partly during school hours

Residential - Where a school activity involves pupils being at least one night away from home, a charge for the actual cost of providing board and lodging will be made. In addition, voluntary contributions for transport and activity costs will be sought. Pupils in receipt of free school meals can be supported with the cost of board and lodgings upon request.

Non-residential - Voluntary contributions will be sought from parents for activities such as educational visits. Charges will not exceed the actual cost of the individual pupil's participation. All letters to parents publicising a particular activity will make it clear if voluntary contributions are being sought and whilst no pupil will be omitted from activities, it will be made clear that the activity will not take place if we do not receive enough voluntary contributions to cover the cost of the activity. The Headteacher has the right to waive the voluntary contribution upon request for families experiencing financial hardship.

Optional activities outside school hours

Charges may be levied by the school or by outside providers for optional activities outside school hours. This includes extra-curricular activities and our wraparound care provision. These costs can include insurance and accounting costs (non-teaching staff costs).

Charges for materials used

A charge may be made where the school has supplied the materials for making an item which the pupil subsequently takes home.

Breakages and damage

Parents may be asked to pay for breakages and/or damage to school property or equipment where this is the result of a pupil's misbehaviour.

Remissions available- The Headteacher may apply some remission of charges for optional activities for pupils whose parents will find it difficult to meet the costs.

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 took full effect on January 1st 2005, establishing a general right of access to information held by all public authorities, including maintained schools.
