23: April 2024

Another term has ended. We thoroughly enjoyed our Easter events and the school was filled with pure joy. The Easter fun day is one of my favourites as I get to make cakes with every child in the school! Our older children did a splendid job at supporting our little ones through the day.

putting on all the fun stalls for us to enjoy, all of which helped to make the day such a success.. They are amazing and work so

My sincere thanks to Annie Cooper and her team of helpers for all their hard work this week, providing and serving all the refreshments at our Easter Tea, as well as donations for our tombola and raffle and congratulations to all the prize winners!

hard to make things fun for us. We are very lucky to have such a great PTA! Thank you for all of your chocolate

I was delighted that so many of you were able to join us to see your lovely children singing so beautifully at the Easter tea, or at St Peter's Church for our Easter Service, or both! It was lovely to see so many extended family members there too. A special 'well done' to Miss Lucas and the choir who soldiered on despite having no music! The children all did really well.

Spring Fair Triumph!

Your children blew me away with their creativity for our Spring Fair - a huge well done to everybody who entered, all of whom received a prize.

Letting Their Light Shine!

SKIPPING WORKSHOPS

Our children thoroughly enjoyed their skipping workshops and we hope they were pleased with the ropes they got to keep. We hope this will encourage them to continue skipping - a fun way to keep fit! Thank you to Mrs Rees for organising the day.

Enjoy spending time with your children
The time of their childhood passes too quickly

Have a Happy Easter break!
